Client: I have to say with 100% truth that this is a must do for any recovering addict. Not only did the counselors help the patients, they took the time to give them nicknames, talk, and make the person feel great about themselves. I highly recommend this program to any now recovering addicts.

I appreciate that the program addresses multiple facets of addiction, factually and non-judgementally. I learned a lot from the sessions. Considering how often substance abuse is closely linked to dysfunctional family environments, I'm impressed with the ability of the staff to keep the family night sessions on track and focussed.
